

Student work Project researcher

1. ABOUT US

Laboratory of Energy Policy (LEST) operates within the faculty of Electrical Engineering. LEST participates in a variety of international scientific research projects with European and international academic, research, and industrial projects. In addition, our team of energy experts provides Energy Consultancy Services to assist businesses across the continent deliver the most cost-efficiency energy solutions.

2. WHAT DO WE OFFER?

Due to the increased workload, we are looking for student help on various projects. Work includes literature review, in-depth analysis, report writing, simulations, and designing solutions for the energy industry. Previous experience working on research projects is an advantage but not a prerequisite.

Duration: 12 months (full-time or on-going arrangement in line with project activities)

Scope of work: professional work

Place of work: by arrangement (work from home or LEST premises possible)

Salary: negotiable depending on skills and experience

3. WHAT ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

- Graduate or postgraduate student (m/f) in electrical engineering//natural sciences/economics/social sciences or other related fields,
- Language skills: Slovenian, English
- Advanced knowledge of MS Office tools (especially Word and Excel)
- Communication skills,
- Pro-activity,
- Teamwork.

4. APPLICATION

If you are interested, please send your CV to tamara.smolej@fe.uni-lj.si by the 1st of December 2022, with the subject line "Student work".